

GOVERNOR'S WOMAN OF DISTINCTION NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Wyoming Council for Women accepts nominations for its Governor's Woman of Distinction award on an ongoing basis. The award is issued as remarkable nominations are submitted, but not more than once a year. This is a "once in a lifetime" award and any or all of the following attributes should be considered when submitting a name for consideration:

- Nominee should have had an impact on women and/or families in the educational or employment sector.
- Nominee should have had an impact on women and/or families in community outreach.
- Nominee should have had an impact on women and/or families in health and wellness concerns.
- Nominee should have had an impact on women and/or families in legal issues.

Any person may submit a nomination by sending a completed nomination form and list of (3) references to Kristin Walker at kristin.walker@wyboards.gov. Award winners will be honored at a special ceremony at a date and location TBD. The nominee chosen as the Governor's Woman of Distinction will be asked to supply a photograph.

Materials To Be Submitted With Nomination Form:

- One (1) page summary of the nominee's contributions towards any or all of the above attributes.
- Three (3) character and/or work/community references (please include names, phone number and email address)
- One (1) page biographical sketch of the nominee.
- Other supportive materials may also be included.

All materials should be legible. The person submitting the nomination will receive acknowledgment from the WCW of receipt of their nomination package by e-mail.
